MAY 6th, 2018 – SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 10:25-48; Second Reading 1 John 4:7-10;

Gospel: John 15:9-17

Jesus remains or abides in God's love so deeply that this love flows on to his friends. They are to love one another as Jesus has loved them.

This is His commandment or commission to them, and by extension to us. It directs them (us) to live for one another and put their lives (our) lives on the line for one another. It means being faithful to the commands of Jesus as He has been faithful to God's commandments.

Remaining in the love of God and doing what God commands seem to be one and the same thing. In other words, love is not just an emotion: it is always expressed in action that is in tune with, and for the sake of, the other. Love is a verb. We do it. The disciples need no further explanation. Jesus' whole life and His courage in the face of impending death have shown them what it truly means to love one another.

Living in the friendship of Christ's disciples is not some abstract goal. Too often we affirm the goodness of our selfless companions on the journey only when we come to lay them to rest. Let us not leave it to chance. Affirm in love and gratitude, the companions we have been blessed to share our journey with, before they can no longer hear us. As we approach the end of the Easter season, we might give thanks for the love of our friends and the joy that they bring to our lives. John reminds his community that Jesus taught that love is the sign of a true disciple and, thus, a true Christian. Even more, a true disciple shows a particular kind of love, sacrificial love.

Love of God does not show partiality – for those who desire Him, He will pour out His Holy Spirit and fill all who are hungry and thirsty for His Love and Truth, and will make new creations of them, welcoming them into the fold. We have been chosen by Him. He has revealed the will of the Father to us, as He too has obeyed and given the example to us. The will of the Father is to Love. He (the Father) did not hold back, He gave His only begotten Son that we might have life, and life in abundance. In the Name of the Son, Jesus, the Father will give to us whatever we ask (providing it is His Will for us) when we obey His commands, the chief of which is to love one another as He (Jesus) has loved us.

In all of this, He gives us Joy. There is Joy in giving to fulfill the needs of another. Joy is a Fruit of the Spirit, produced when we remain grafted into the True Vine, which is Jesus. He has said that "I have said to you these things so that my Joy may be in you, and that your Joy may be complete. Abide in the True Vine and produce great Fruit of the Spirit: Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Faithfulness, Gentleness and Self Control. Notice Love is at the beginning of the list. It is necessary for the remaining fruit to grow. Listen to Jesus. Obey His Commands. Do Love and be filled with Joy for the Joy of the Lord is your strength! Amen.
