A FAREWELL MESSAGE

My Dear Parishioners,

As we are about to go through the phase of CHANGE once again, I am sure, some of you could be a bit concerned. Please be aware, it is never easy for anyone; but the funny thing in life is: "Change is the only reality that cannot be changed" said the Greek philosopher Heraclitus. Therefore, let us face it gracefully and pray with Reinhold Niebuhr: "Lord grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and wisdom to know the difference".

The six years of my service to the Lord at St. Anne's parish is coming to its closure on June 25th, 2018. When I look back, I can't believe the marvelous things the Lord has done through us at St. Anne's. In these past weeks, I have heard from so many of you very encouraging and affirming words of appreciation and thanks. That was so generous of you placing everything that we have commonly achieved here at St. Anne's credited to my account. Thank you for that generosity; but remember - we did it together; without you nothing would have been possible. Thank you for your witnessing faith, cheerful sacrifices and loving support. Yes, it is difficult to say Good Bye. As I mentioned many times there are so many living saints in this parish and some who can make saints as well, if I may be brutally honest. But overall, it was a wonderful six years that the Lord has granted me. This parish has allowed me to grow and mature. I really enjoyed it and will miss it. At the same time, it is important that we all should move where the Lord leads us. We are not here to establish our kingdoms, but to be the witnesses of His Kingdom.

Humanly speaking, we are not going to be too far; in 20 minutes our roads might cross if we wish; it's at Mavis and Matheson; St. Francis Xavier Church, Mississauga. Do you know that there are plenty of restaurants in the neighborhood? Therefore, we could hang out there once in a while Hahaha....

I am so proud of my associates and staff who gave unrelenting support in planning and executing all our pastoral initiatives. Fr. Paul Magyar, Fr. Francesco Marrone and Fr. Jibin Joy; they all worked with me like brothers. No words will be enough to thank my ever supportive and talented staff especially Lynette D'Souza, Mary Brum, and Arlene Morgan who took all the burdens and demands with cheerful hearts and tireless hands. Special thanks to Eduardo Simão who is looking after the church clean and tidy all the time. To all my techy part time staff: Joseph D'Souza, Zenaida Pereira, and Sarah Cuison who are so smart and vigilant always, Brenda Carvalho who kept the books up-to-date; Roseann turning the rectory into a welcome home always, our 300 plus volunteers in various ministries who spent hundreds of hours just because of the love of the Lord.

The greatest joy of my ministry here at St. Anne's was seeing more and more young families attending Sunday Mass with their little ones and Friday & Saturday nights kids and youth filling up our hallways and meeting rooms. These wonderful experiences are what I will miss most. For that we should admire the love, passion and patience of our Youth and sacramental coordinator Arlene Morgan and her team. Thank you, youth leaders... To all of you Thank you... Thank you... Thank you... May the Lord reward you all.

Moving forward...

I am so glad and proud to say that St. Anne's is blessed with an experienced, gifted and talented Pastor Rev. Fr. Joel Pabilona. He is commonly known as the singing Priest. In a few years, St. Anne's will be celebrating its Golden Jubilee and I wish and pray that Fr. Pabilona may lead the parish to its Golden years of history as well as we celebrate its golden jubilee. Please welcome and support Fr. Pabilona so that he can make St. Anne an amazing place for all the people of God.

As a final note: The prayers of the faithful are the strength of our ministry. Therefore, my dear people, my request to you will be: Please Remember us when you Pray & Pray when you Remember.

- Fr. James Cherickal.

THANK YOU FR. JAMES

The parishioners and staff of St. St. Anne's would like to express thanks and good wishes to our pastor, Fr. James Cherickal as he embarks on his new appointed position as Pastor of St. Francis Xavier in Mississauga and departs the parish at the end of June.

We extend our appreciation for his 6 years with us, for his spiritual guidance and his devotion to St. Anne's and the community. Fr. James made numerous improvements to our church and rectory.

Some of the projects accomplished during his time are:

- Converting Boardroom into Faith Formation Office
- Kneelers for weddings & near statues
- New tiles in the church and office
- Canadian and Vatican Flag posts on the front lawn
- St. Anne's sign – in front of church
- Our Lady of Fatima Statue
- New altar with relic of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque
- New Ambo
- Tabernacle Mount
- St. Joseph statue & Statue of Our Lady of Mount Carmel
- Cabinets inside the office
- Wooden background for the cross on wall in church
- Stations of the Cross mounting
- New server and revamping of computer system, and projectors in church and meeting rooms
- Screen in the foyer
- Developed a logo for St. Anne's Church
- New digital sound system in the church
- St. Anne's statue stand in the church
- LED Lighting in church & parking lot
- New freezer for parish use
- New fridge, washer and dryer in the house
- Widening of Exit Lanes
- Renovation – house kitchen/dining room – open concept
- 2 Angels in front of Tabernacle
- 6 Altar candles
- Baptismal font
- Security cameras
- Renovations - Women's/Men's Washrooms, Tiles in Hallway, Parish kitchen & upgrading Church doors (underway)

Some of these projects were made possible through the generous donations from groups and parishioners during his time in our parish and all handcrafted carpentry donated by Marco Antonio Escobar.

Our prayers go with him. May God Bless you Fr. James!
