August 26 – TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"If it does not please you to serve the LORD, decide today whom you will serve, the gods your fathers served beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose country you are now dwelling. As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

In other words, Joshua is saying "When all the reasons were on one side and Christ on the other, I would choose Christ." This is also applicable to the Gospel today. Especially when Jesus gives us a difficult word, if we truly have faith and trust in Him, we will remain in His stead, we will remain His followers. The beauty of both the first reading and the Gospel today is that they each acknowledge the goodness of the Lord. Both readings indicate how those who really wanted to serve the Lord, were doing so because they had seen His Goodness, experienced His Goodness and Faithfulness. Why would they betray Him and turn to other Gods of the day. The days (especially our current days) are evil and they are times of deception. It is easy to fall into the current ways of society and to worship the gods of the day: materialism, relativism, prochoice agendas, and anti-life agendas, various "confusions" of the day. It is easy to fall into this current stream rather than stand on the Word of God and speak out His Truth on each of these "gods" of the day. He is the one and only true God. He is Jehovah – our Mighty, Omnipotent, Omniscient, All-powerful God! As we follow His Ways, we find our lives are on track. Our lives are not necessarily easier, but they are on track, and we walk with an inner peace that evidences the power of God in us. Hence, the mutuality of the message in both the first reading and the Gospel, "As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD" and "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of everlasting life"

As we turn to the second reading we see the importance of being One in the Lord as well as being One as husband and wife. It is clear that the Lord intended husband and wife to be co-equal. Each one putting the other before themselves, is clearly set forth. However, this is not always lived out as the Lord intended. There is a plaque over each door at Madonna House that states, "I am third". God is first, my neighbour is second, and I am third. God is first. "Be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ." If we can live our lives as Jesus has outlined in His Word today, always putting the other before ourselves, there would be such peace in our lives, and would indeed put worship and service of the Lord first. "Wives should be subordinate to their husbands as to the Lord. For the husband is head of his wife just as Christ is head of the church, he himself the savior of the body. As the church is subordinate to Christ, so wives should be subordinate to their husbands in everything. So also husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one hates his own flesh but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the church, because we are members of his body. For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church." Equality and mutual respect between husband and wife is clearly set out by the Lord in this reading, and is certainly the foundation of a life of union in Christ full of love and respect, just as Christ loves and nurtures His Spiritual Body, the Church (us). If we have not been diligent in following the Ways of the Lord as set out for us in the readings today, let us determine in our hearts and minds to change. Let us be like Joshua and our households will serve the Lord, and acknowledge like Peter, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of everlasting life". Taste and see the goodness of the Lord by receiving Him in the Eucharist, and receiving Him in the Word to nourish our minds, hearts and bodies; and remember His Goodness to each of us in our times of desolation and loneliness. Remember, and acknowledge in spirit and truth, that Jesus is Lord to the Glory of God the Father, and like Joshua and Peter, be determined to serve the Lord in His Way. Amen.

Thank you for your Generosity!

Thank you note from Fr. James

Dear Parishioners of St. Anne,
It has been two months since I have moved from St. Anne's. I was going through all your love notes and kind words of appreciation and thoughtful gifts that you have given. I am so overwhelmed by your love and gratitude. How I wish to write some personal thank you to all; but some of you didn't put your contact information in the card; therefore, I thought this may be the easiest way to reach you back. Thank you to all who have spent so many hours planning and implementing that wonderful farewell gatherings and all your appreciation. May God bless you.

Here at St. Francis Xavier, I am learning a lot of new things and they are keeping me busy. You are always welcome to stop by at St. Francis whenever you are in Mississauga. I heard that Fr. Joel had to take a vacation right after he joined St. Anne's! What did you do to him? (Just kidding) I am sure, you will take good care of him. All the best Fr. Joel.

In Christ, Fr. James Cherickal.
