FEBRUARY 3, 2019 - FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Like many of the prophets, Jeremiah was reluctant in many ways. He had no aspirations to be a prophet and found it to be a weighty call. However, God made it very clear that He had called Jeremiah to this vocation (He predestined him) and that He fully expected him to fulfill that call. “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you.” He promised Jeremiah that He would be with him, and would fortify him so that he could speak the strong word He wanted to be delivered to Judah's kings and princes. Our loving God equips those whom He calls. Our God didn't say it would be easy – “do not be crushed on their account”. Each of us is called to a particular role in serving God, the Church and one another. As reluctant as we too may be, our goal should be to fulfill God's Will and relinquish our own fear and inadequacy into His Hands. God prepares and provides for those He has called. He knows what He is doing, and whom he is choosing. We can expect like Jeremiah, opposition, but we can be assured that God is with us always, because He said so! In these days of persecution of Christians all over the world, it is not easy to speak the Truth, the hard Word, without fear. However, as we read in the scriptures of the fortitude and endurance of the prophets, we know that the perfect Love of God in our hearts and minds will sustain us, and draw us into Hope and Faith, knowing that our God is at our side and will not leave us nor forsake us. Perfect Love casts out Fear.

Paul tells us that without Love, we are nothing but a clanging cymbal and a noisy gong. Empty, and without substance. Love epitomizes Jesus, and It is who He is. Love is the greatest of virtues. Without Love we are, and have, nothing according to Paul's first letter to the Corinthians. With love we truly can bear all things, knowing that we are not given anything more than we can bear, and always a way out of our difficulty, having surrendered it to Jesus. Love gives us the strength to endure hardship, and to bear all things – love is patient, love is kind, it is not rude, it is not boastful, it is not angry, jealous nor violent, love does not rejoice in wrong. All gifts are useless without love, is what Paul is telling us. Are we listening, really? This is a self-giving love, not expecting anything in return. It is unconditional. It is agape love. God's love. Love never ends. This love is required to live life God's way and to fulfill His call on our lives, selflessly and unconditionally all for the Glory of God. Love is a verb. We do it!

Today's Gospel is about who Jesus is and who people believe him to be. The story of Jesus' preaching and rejection at Nazareth is found in each of the Synoptic Gospels. Luke gives us the content of Jesus' teaching in detail, telling us that Jesus read from the book of the prophet Isaiah in the synagogue in Nazareth, His home town. He proceeded to say that no prophet is accepted in his home town. The townspeople take offense because “Jesus is only the son of a carpenter” after all. Familiarity breeds contempt. They resented Him and an attempt was made to kill Him. He simply passed through the midst of them. What Jesus said, they clearly did not want to hear. Ironically, they wanted miracles from Him, but their lack of faith and love prevented Jesus from do so. As Jesus is confronted with anger, opposition and derision, He responds with love. This is how we are expected to respond in the presence of opposition. Not to respond in anger, but to respond in love as Jesus did. Love is our strength and it identifies us in the world as belonging to Jesus. Let us never lose our first love, and always respond with selfless, unconditional love – even in the face of opposition. Always remember that Jesus is Lord, and never be afraid to proclaim it for the sake of LOVE.
