Throughout the gospel stories, Jesus chooses to hang out with the wrong kind of people.

The starting point for Jesus is grace: searching not blaming, finding not punishing, rejoicing not condemning.

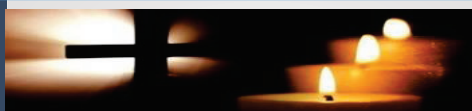

Notice the parables Jesus offers. They're not about being wrong. They are about being lost. A sheep is lost. A coin is lost. There is nothing about blame, or finding fault. That doesn't seem to be Jesus' concern. His concern is for the one that is lost, missing, absent. Jesus doesn't explain how the lost one become lost. He doesn't blame or judge. That's not the issue. The issue for Jesus is restoration.

We know, we are all lost in one way or another even though we do our utmost, to hold it all together.

Today in the Gospel, Jesus wants us to see God in a new light. He wants us to know God's character. That's the whole point of these parables. They reveal God's character, God's grace, God's way of being toward us revealed in and through Jesus.

That grace and character are revealed in Jesus' searching, finding, and rejoicing. Those are not three different things, three separate actions or moments in time, but three manifestations of God's one grace. They are the ongoing presence of God in Christ in each one of us; in all creation actually. Depending on the circumstances of our lives, we experience that grace differently, as searching, finding, or rejoicing. Ultimately, it means there is a place set for each one of us at the table of The Lord, we matter. We are desired by and are important to God. This Jesus, who welcomes sinners and eats with them is constantly searching for us, finding us, and rejoicing over our presence at His table. He restores us to new life and YES all are welcome.

105TH WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS & REFUGEES – SEPT. 29TH

St. Philip Neri Catholic Church
Mass: 4:30pm

The theme announced by His Holiness Pope Francis for the 105th World Day of Migrants and Refugees is "It is not Just About Migrants." In his message, Pope Francis reminds us that "the presence of migrants and refugees, is an invitation to recover some of those essential dimensions of our Christian existence and our humanity that risk being overlooked in a prosperous society. That is why it is not just about migrants. 'For if you love those who love you, what recompense will you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same?' – (Matt: 5:46)."
