OCTOBER 25 - THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Gospel: Matthew 22.34-40 – The Greatest Commandment

Love until it Hurts

One of the most commonly used words in today's culture is "love." It has become so familiar in our regular language that people use the same word to describe their sentiments towards pizza, their pets and their children. Clearly a different level of love exists between those three things, but this common usage of the word can slowly lead us to lose the meaning of love in its truest sense.

In the Gospel today, Jesus boils down all of the commandments into loving God with all our being and loving our neighbour as ourselves. In order to fully love God and our neighbour, we need to remind ourselves what the true definition and expression of love is. Love is ultimately a sacrifice. It is willing the good of the other, which involves us foregoing our own interests for theirs.

St. Teresa of Calcutta beautifully says that for "love to be real, it must cost—it must hurt—it must empty us of self." As stewards, we should always keep this understanding of love in our minds because stewardship is essentially a life of love. With this true understanding, we will not be surprised when we face difficulties or suffering in our ministry. Likewise, it helps us ask ourselves if we're being too comfortable in our generosity and challenges us to give even more of ourselves. Let us seek to constantly serve God and our neighbour in our parish community out of a deep love for them.

First Holy Communion Masses for candidates registered in 2019/2020 for the weekend of: Sunday, November 1st.

As candidates and their guests will be attending the 5pm and 12 noon Masses on this weekend, we are asking that parishioners be mindful of this and be aware that at these Masses, some parishioners may be asked to relocate to the Stephenson and Pocock rooms for those Masses. We thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

FROM THE PASTOR'S

Greetings of Peace in the Lord!

I know that there is no getting used to this new normal brought about by the Covid19 pandemic. In the wake of its second wave, we have reverted to some government restrictions that have been lifted almost a month ago.

As we move into the fall season, we are in a time of great uncertainty about the pandemic's direction and the possibility of another church closure as the archdiocese mentioned in a communiqué.

In our effort to accommodate more parishioners in church, the Stephenson and Pocock rooms are now open as it was during the pre-covid19 time. Although, some of you will not be inside the church, you still will be practically part of the liturgy as opposed to virtual and you will have actual communion. The Parish Finance Council already has provided you a report on the financial situation of the parish a few weeks ago. Thank you for continuing to help our parish financially. With the gradually diminishing subsidy (CEWS) by the government, we will certainly need your financial assistance. There are many ways in which you will be able to continue to support our parish. You may continue to drop your offerings in our offertory baskets on Sundays or securely drop your offertory envelopes at our dropbox inside our parish office on weekdays from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm.

I would also like to encourage you to avail of PAG (Pre-authorized Giving). You may access our website or call the parish office for further assistance.

Thank you for your cooperation and continued help and support.

God Bless you all!

- Fr. Joel B. Pabilona, Jr., Pastor

ShareLife: Serving the Deaf community

ShareLife-funded agencies are on the front line of the Covid-19 pandemic. One of these agencies, Silent Voice, serves the Deaf community.

They report being "in overdrive" as they work remotely to help Deaf children and youth. They are also helping Deaf people navigate the complex and ever-changing relief programs, restrictions and announcements, which are often not accessible to Deaf people. Your gift to ShareLife ensures they can continue this work.

November 8 is the next ShareLife Sunday. From now through November 8, you can double the impact of your donation. A generous donor is matching gifts up to $500,000.
