NOVEMBER 15 - THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Gospel: Matthew 25.1-13 – The Parable of the Ten Bridesmaids

Living with a Holy Fear

In today's Gospel we hear the parable of the ten bridesmaids in which only the five wise ones who had prepared for the wedding banquet were allowed to enter into the celebration. Jesus ends this parable with the exhortation to "keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." It is true that none of us know the time of our own death or Christ's Final Judgement.

While this reality can lead many to fear and trembling, the Catechism instead calls us to cultivate a "holy fear" and a "blessed hope" (CCC 1041). We can cultivate those attitudes by intentionally calling to mind the finiteness of our lives and remembering that we are all ultimately made for Heaven. This reality is beautifully summarized in the words of St. Rose of Viterbo. "Live so as not to fear death. For those who live well in the world, death is not frightening but sweet and precious."

Let us also remember that during our judgment before God we will be standing before the same Lord that we have befriended through prayer and the sacraments. Let us not appear before the throne of God not having first known Him in this life. As stewards, we should live with our feet planted on earth but our eyes fixed heavenward. The Lord has ordained it in such a way that we are still called to serve and love Him in this life but let us never forget our true home. Let us prepare ourselves well.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

St Anne's Pastoral Council needs your help. We are starting a pastoral outreach to parishioners who have not returned since the pandemic began. Our goals are to show care, update our records and ensure people know how to attend Mass in person or online.

If you are willing to make some phone calls and are ready to listen in a warm manner, please call or email the church office to volunteer. We hope to begin our outreach next week.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

What will you say when you meet God face to face? Better still, what will God say to you? Will you be able to answer that you served faithfully? Can you answer that now? If God is calling you to the priesthood, diaconate or consecrated life.

Contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

PARISH GOAL: $62,100

To date Received: $46,365 (74.7%)

FROM THE PASTOR'S

My dear Parishioners;

In the wake of the Covid19 pandemic, it was necessary to create a new ministry, the Health and Safety Ministry, to assist in the reopening of the church once the government restrictions were lifted.

Several of our parishioners, despite the uncertainties, bravely volunteered to help. Without them, it would have been almost impossible for the priests, the different liturgical ministries, and the parishioners to return to in-church worship.

Last Wednesday, November 4, the Archbishop celebrated a Thanksgiving Mass for all the health and safety volunteers who rendered selfless service to their respective parish communities throughout the Archdiocese of Toronto.

We would like to express our deep gratitude to our very own health and safety stewards by giving them certificates of recognition courtesy of Archbishop Cardinal Collins. Some may ask, how about the parish staff and liturgical ministries - like sacristans, Eucharistic ministers, choir - do they not deserve recognition too for rendering noble service during this extraordinary time? Certainly, every one of you deserves recognition even just for being in church during this difficult time. All of you deserve a certificate of recognition...

But on certain occasions, we celebrate the goodness of all of us, of all humanity, by honoring an individual or a group of individuals for being a source of inspiration and an example to emulate.

While all the members of our faith community are of great value and also deserve certificates of recognition, let our health and safety stewards represent the greatness of who we are as a parish, be a source of inspiration and encouragement during this unprecedented time, and receive our heartfelt gratitude for helping ensure our health and safety.

Last Sunday, November 8, we honored our health and safety Stewards with Certificates of Recognition from Archbishop Cardinal Collins.

To all our health and safety stewards who received their certificate of recognition, thank you for giving the Archbishop Cardinal Collins and the parish community the opportunity to give something back, thank you for what you do, thank you for being good representatives of who we are as a parish.

God Bless!

Fr. Joel B. Pabilona Jr.
Pastor
