Gospel: Mark 1.21-28 – The Man with an Unclean Spirit

Spreading Jesus' Fame

In today's Gospel we hear about Jesus delivering a man with an unclean spirit. When the crowds saw this great miracle, they were all amazed by Jesus' words and deeds and began to speak about Him in astonishment. The Gospel ends by saying that "at once Jesus' fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee." The news of this miracle helped others in the region come to know about Jesus.

So too, as stewards of Christ we should share with others the wonderful deeds God has done for us. All of us who have chosen to follow Christ more closely have our own testimony of how God entered into our lives. St. Peter says that it is important to "always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you" (1 Peter 3:15).

Therefore, whenever someone asks us why we take our faith and stewardship so seriously, we should be able to tell them why. These are prime opportunities to share the faith with others. The next time a family member or friend asks us why we choose to follow Christ, let us share with them how God has beautifully worked in our lives. This way, just as Jesus' fame spread in the Gospel, it can also spread here in the Archdiocese. Bishop Robert Barron says that "the minute you walk outside of your church on Sunday you're in mission territory." As stewards, let us live this missionary call and spread the good news of Jesus Christ.

Confessions are heard on Wednesday and Saturday 10AM-11AM. No appointment necessary. Limited to 10 people, including priest and greeter.

The church is OPEN for private prayer Monday-Saturday from 10AM-12PM and Wednesday and Friday 6PM-8PM. Attendance inside the church is limited to 10 people, including greeter/volunteer to monitor capacity restrictions.
