MARCH 7TH - THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus said,
"Whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life."
John 4:14

Gospel: John 1.6-8, 19-28 – The Testimony of John the Baptist

Choosing Joy

"Rejoice always!" These are the words that St. Paul writes in the second reading this Gaudete Sunday. He exhorts all of us to always rejoice.

It is important to note that he doesn't say to always be happy, but to rejoice always. Happiness, by definition, is utterly circumstantial. We are happy when we are experiencing something good, like eating ice cream on a hot day. However, when the ice cream melts, or it begins to rain our happiness quickly ceases because that good thing we were experiencing is fleeting.

Joy on the other hand is radically different. To experience joy is to remain happy despite the circumstances. This everlasting joy springs solely from recognizing that we are beloved children of God and being aware that we are living in the smiling gaze of Christ. But how do we live in joy? St. James in his letter says, "My brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of any kind, consider it nothing but joy," To experience joy is to intentionally call to mind God's love in the midst of our trials.

As stewards, let us not keep this practice of joy to ourselves. One way we can help people rejoice in suffering is by not partaking in complaining about our difficult situations. The next time we are in a tough moment and people around us begin to complain, let us strive to steer the conversation into one of gratitude for the good things the Lord is doing in our lives. This slow adjustment of choosing joy in our trials will begin to revitalize our parishes and communities, and the entire world.

2021 National Catholic Women's Conference

March 12-14, 2021

What if you could be at peace most of the time?

Exhausting - Busy - Chaotic

How often do you use those words when describing our day? As Catholic women, many of us with kids, spouses, jobs, (and now add homeschool teacher to the list), it is easy to feel like everyone wants a piece of our time and energy.

When that time and energy just isn't there to give, it can leave us feeling guilty. If only we had more time, more energy, more hands! Then we could get it all done. Then we'll have earned the right to some peace.
