OCTOBER 10 – TWENTY-EIGHT SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – THANKSGIVING WEEKEND

*In Gospel: Mark 10.17-30 – The Rich Man
Fostering an Attitude of Gratitude*

Thanksgiving weekend provides us the perfect opportunity to reflect on our lives and our commitment to stewardship. Let us consider the following passage from Cardinal Collins’ Pastoral Letter on Stewardship* . “Deep stewardship begins with gratitude and ends with accountability. Stewardship is sometimes called ‘the attitude of gratitude.’ We recognize gratefully that everything in life is a gift of God ... If each of us is profoundly aware that all is gift, then we are freed from possessiveness, and can be good stewards of what has been entrusted to us in life, sharing generously.”

Before we can generously share our time and talents with the parish community, we must first realize that they are gifts from God. There are many fruitful practices we can adopt to help us cultivate this deeper sense of gratitude. Firstly, we must always remember that life itself is a beautiful gift. We can try to begin each day while we still lie in bed to simply say “thank you Lord for blessing me with another day.” We will then be able to have a greater appreciation for our time on earth and work towards making better use of our lives.

Additionally, this weekend when we have our family Thanksgiving dinner, perhaps we can go around the table and have each person say what they are thankful for this past year. Let us challenge ourselves to go deep and truly examine all of the blessings God has bestowed on our lives that we so often take for granted. Let us grow in our stewardship this weekend as we foster an “attitude of gratitude.”
