NOVEMBER 28 – FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Can you Let Me In?

Happy New Year! Church begins a new liturgical year with NEW expectations today. This period is called "Advent" which we will prepare for "coming of Jesus" normally called "Christmas". Actually what coming are we preparing? He already came to the world right? So is it just a celebration of a historical event? I don't think so. As far as I know there are three comings of Jesus in our lives. You might wonder what they are. Sit back and enjoy. First coming happened before two thousand years ago in Bethlehem. That is why we say "Long time ago in Bethlehem the Holy Bible Says ...". It was the Birth of Jesus what we call First coming of Jesus. Yes certainly we can and should celebrate it. What are the other comings of Jesus? We all know another one will happen at the very end of the world, which we can say is the final coming of Jesus. If Jesus comes to our lives tearing open the sky and shaking the mountains (in His Glory as we read in today's Gospel), it would be very easy for us to recognize Jesus. Then what is this coming we are celebrating? Just a celebration of an historical event. The way we are preparing it is a big YES. But is that the expectation. It is a big NO. The reason is that it may be too late for some if we really don't understand him before the final coming. As today's' gospel indicates "Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy from carousing and drunkenness and the anxieties of daily life, and that day catch you by surprise like a trap." Church has given this advent season for his followers for special preparation to accept Jesus to their hearts in a silent way; that they will not get lost in their battles and specially at their final hour.

Most important Coming of Jesus is the welcoming of Jesus into our lives here when we are still on earth. Jesus is willing to enter into our lives each and every day, each and every interaction we are having with others who ever they are. Maybe we are interacting with our friends, family, colleagues even the environment God is willing to enter into our lives, especially in the celebration of the sacraments, especially the Eucharist.

God gave his only son to redeem us with no hesitation. Let that son Jesus grow in us so we can burn our flesh and let his qualities grow in us. Let's make a decision not to fight with him when He proposes something to us in silence. Let Him mold us into his likeness, into the likeness of God, to become a person of integrity and truth, of love and compassion, of freedom and peace. Then we are not the one who is going to meet God at the end his only Son because He is the one living in us. It will be a win-win situation.

We can simply say "we are the clay and you the potter: we are all the work of your hands" and let him guide us daily then the world will be a better place for all of us when Jesus is born in our hearts.

Families interested in lighting the Advent wreath candles at Sunday Masses during Advent are asked to please sign up in the sacristy after Mass. Thank you!
