Can we reflect for a moment, on The Baptism of The Lord with new insight, with that same Star light that guided the Wise Men to Jesus; that same light that beckons and guides us?

We know that through baptism we no longer live according to the biological laws of nature but we are born anew in Christ, through a relationship with The Holy Spirit, who through the Prophet Isaiah says, “Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine” (Isaiah 43:1).

That means when we pass through the waters of sorrow and difficulty God is with us. The waters and rivers that can drown us will not overwhelm us. That means when we walk through the fire of loss and ruination we are not burned, the flames that can destroy will not consume us.

To know this, to trust this, to experience this is the gift of baptism and baptism always takes place at the border of life as it is and life as it might be. Jesus is baptized in the river Jordan. Geographically, symbolically, and theologically the Jordan River is the border on which baptism happens. It is the border between the wilderness and the promised land; the border between life as survival and a life that is thriving; the border between sin and forgiveness; the border between Jesus private life and His public life. The border between His birth and His death. We all stand on that border at multiple points in our lives. Some of us may stand there now. Some of us experience that border as a place of loss, fear, pain. At other times it is a place of joy, hope, and healing. In reality it is both at the same time.

When Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, “You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.” (Luke 3:21-22).

Jesus’ baptism is for our sake and salvation. His baptism makes ours possible. The water of baptism does not sanctify Jesus. Instead He sanctifies the water for our baptism. The water that once had the power to cause us to drown is now sanctified water that gives life.

Ritually we are baptized only once. Yet throughout our life we return to the waters of baptism. Daily we return to the baptismal waters through living our baptismal vows.

Sometimes our own body provides the waters of baptism, through tears. Tears are the body’s own baptismal waters that cleanse, heal, and renew life. Other times by the circumstances of life, things done and left undone by us and others, the ups and downs of living, push us back to the waters of baptism. We return in order to, again be immersed into the open heavens, to be bathed by God’s breath, the Holy Spirit, and to let the name “beloved” wash over us.

Let us be mindful every time we dip our fingers in the font of Holy Water, as we enter the sanctuary and let us renew our baptismal vows and experience the joy of our deepest faith, that we are a new creation through our Baptism in Christ.

Marriage Sunday

In 2022, the Archdiocese of Toronto will celebrate Marriage Sunday at the parish level on the weekend of FEBRUARY 12/13. On Saturday, February 13th at the 5PM Mass, St. Anne's will be honouring those couples who will celebrate their 25th, 40th or 50th wedding anniversary throughout 2022 with a special blessing. If you are celebrating one of these anniversaries and will be attending Mass, please notify the parish office in order to reserve seating.

CELEBRATION OF MARRIAGE MASS WITH BISHOP ROBERT KASUN – FEBRUARY 13, 2022 – 2:30 P.M.

As part of Marriage Sunday 2022 celebrations, Bishop Robert Kasun will preside at a special Mass to honour couples celebrating milestone anniversaries in 2022. Couples celebrating their 25th, 40th, 50th, 60th, or 60+ wedding anniversary in 2022 are invited to join in this special celebration. The Mass will take place at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, February 13 at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica (65 Bond Street, Toronto).

Due to social distancing measures, Cathedral attendance is limited to pre-registered couples celebrating milestone wedding anniversaries and a maximum of one (1) guest per celebrant couple. Please register at www.archtoronto.org/marriage. Given the limited attendance at the Cathedral, we encourage milestone celebrants to register early. Those who are not able to register may join the celebration via Livestream Mass here: <https://www.stmichaelscathedral.com/live/>

Life of Saint Agnes

On January 21, the Church celebrates the feast day of Saint Agnes.

Although we know very little about the life of Saint Agnes, she has been honored as a young girl who put her faith first. Over the centuries, she has been revered as a young woman of great strength and courage.

It is believed that Agnes was born in the year 291 to parents that were members of the Roman nobility. Agnes was very beautiful, and many young men wished to marry her. She refused them all, saying that she had promised her life to Christ. One of these men tried to win her heart by offering her gifts and promises of a wealthy life. When she turned him down, he was so enraged that he reported to his father, the governor, that Agnes was a Christian. The governor tried to bribe Agnes with gifts in exchange for her giving up her faith, but his attempts failed. He condemned her to death, but her face only showed the joy she felt in staying true to her faith. Saint Agnes is often depicted in art holding a lamb, a symbol of purity. Her name also resembles the Latin word for lamb, which is "agnus." Her name in Greek means "pure" or "sacred."

2022 OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

are Offering Envelopes

available for pick up from the STEPHENSON ROOM after all Masses. They are in numerical order. Please print your contact information for the first couple of envelopes.
