This week's Gospel tells us what happened on Mt. Tabor; but shortly before, in Caesarea Philippi, Jesus had declared to his disciples that he was to undergo suffering in Jerusalem, that he was going to die at the hands of the chief priest, the elders and the Scribes. The Apostles were weighed down with sorrow. Jesus had compassion on them.

Now Jesus took with him Peter, John, and James and went up on the mountain to pray. While Jesus was praying "the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white." Moses and Elijah were also there talking with Jesus. The three disciples struggled between sleep and wakefulness. "Since they had stayed awake" they saw Jesus' glory. They had a glimpse of heaven. The Plan of God for the salvation of humanity was unfolding before them.

Jesus revealed himself to Peter, John, and James as He really is and He showed them, how His suffering, death and resurrection will transform us into His image and likeness, if we accept HIM as our Lord and Saviour. Peter, John, and James experienced the transfiguration of Christ because they stayed awake despite the weight of sleep. Peter misunderstood, however. "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." Humanity can never build a dwelling place for God. It is, rather, God who makes humanity the dwelling place of divinity. This is most profoundly revealed in the Transfiguration of Jesus.

We are called to be the embodiment of Christ, but spiritual sleep steals from us the life energy necessary to be able to climb the mountain of the Lord. This journey is often harsh and laborious, because we often have to go against the current opinion and we have to struggle against enemies both inside and outside of ourselves, but God wants to strengthen us with the hope of Heaven, in difficult and challenging time. That is the purpose to go on and carry our cross with courage and freely give ourselves to Jesus and be one with Him on His mission of salvation.

The whole of creation participates in the glory of God. Humanity alone, however, is called to the Mount of Transfiguration. It is there that Christ reveals who we are and whose we are, through HIM and by grace, we are to become like HIM. The Feast of the Transfiguration invites us to wipe the sleep from our eyes, stand up and approach the mountain of the Lord with unceasing prayer, our eyes always fixed on Jesus. Each time we fall we get up and with unwavering Faith look up to Jesus, reach for His hand and He will give us strength for the journey.

*"In HIM with Him and through Him in the unity of the Holy Spirit all glory and honour are yours Almighty Father for ever and ever.
Amen"*

UKRAINIAN HUMANITARIAN RELIEF

Donations to help Ukrainians who are suffering due to this war would be a most appreciated gift.

The Archdiocese of Toronto will channel donations to support the Office for Refugees, Archdiocese of Toronto (ORAT) and the Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA). CNEWA is a papal agency with a long history of humanitarian relief providing Ukrainians with food, shelter, medicine, and transportation to safe locations.

Those wishing to help may do so in the following ways:

- Online through the Archdiocese of Toronto website: www.archtoronto.org
- By phone through the Development Office – 416-934-3411
- Through the parish, making cheques payable to: St. Anne's Church – Ukrainian Relief – Humanitarian Relief

Please continue to pray for the Ukrainian people and all those who suffer under the human tragedy of war. Thank you for your continued assistance.
