Jude Luke Caldeira Jr.

Spring and Summer, with salad greens sprouting and seedlings patted in place, I so look forward to a good harvest of vegetables! On the other hand, I know how disheartening it is to discover that the biggest, juiciest tomato in the garden has been invaded by worms, or that my whole crop of spinach was eaten overnight by a marauding gopher.

In the 11th century, Blessed Theophylact noted that the harvest Jesus is referring to in today's Gospel is "the multitude in need of healing." If I am saddened by a tomato or a crop of spinach that doesn't make it, I can only imagine how devastated our Lord is when beloved human souls go missing from his Kingdom because there was no one to proclaim the Good News, cure an illness, or call a despondent person back from death to life.

It is this work of healing that prompted Jesus to call 12 ordinary people into action to heal the wounds of the world. And it is this healing work, demanding as it is, to which we are also called.

Today, will we come to Christ to be renewed in body, mind and spirit, to go back out into the fields of our families, friends and communities, to heal lives before they are wasted? Holy Spirit of Jesus, nourish us today to be able to the yield of your fields.

WHY YOUR FIRST HOLY COMMUNION LOOKED LIKE A WEDDING

Why do first communicants look like little brides and grooms coming down the aisle on the day of their first Holy Communion? The reason will transform the way you look at the Eucharist, Holy Communion, and your relationship with God. Today, Jackie and Bobby leverage their formation in Pope St. John Paul II's Theology of the Body to explain why your first Holy Communion was a sort of Wedding.
