Masses For The Week

JULY 16, 2023 – FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Gospel: Matthew 13.1-23

God All-Encompassing Word

The readings today remind us that the Word of God is impartial and seeks out all of humanity. In the first reading, God speaks through the prophet Isaiah, reminding the people that God's word is like rain that comes down from the heavens. As it falls, it waters all the earth making it fertile, but only those who take advantage of the fertility of the soil by planting seeds reaped benefits. Like the rain, the Word of God also goes forth to do what God wills and has full potency to give life to anyone who's heart is fertile and willing to receive it.

In the Gospel, when the sower in the parable sows the seed, he is indifferent about where the seed lands. This is not because the sower who represents God, is a careless sower, but rather shows that God wants all people to have a chance to receive His word, regardless of whether they will accept it. God loves all people equally, but only those whose hearts are fertile and are ready to receive God's word will have the word grow and bear fruit within them.

The readings today call us to reflect on the state of our own soul. Is our soul is fertile ground for the Word of God to come and take root and produce much fruit or have we hardened our hearts, making God's word difficult to grow. Does the word of God we hear at every Mass transform us and give us life, or like the parable, does the Word get choked out by the weeds or eaten up by birds? As stewards who are seeking to do God's will, it is important for us to get to know the Word. A great way to do this is by joining a bible study or forming one with family and friends if one is not available. Let us immerse ourselves in God's Word, for it is there that we will get to know Him.

FROM THE PASTOR'S

My Dear Parishioners of St. Anne,

Greetings of Joy!

Once again, we will celebrate the feast of St. Anne, our patroness - the mother of Mary and grandmother of Jesus. This year's celebration is even more significant as we celebrate an important milestone which is the 50th anniversary of the foundation of the parish.

As I asked for your help and support for our upcoming events, I anticipate with gratitude the magnanimity many of you have demonstrated in the past.

May God generously shower upon us all His graces and blessings during this jubilee year of our parish.

May St. Anne continue to intercede for us.

Have a happy Feast Day of St. Anne! Happy Golden Anniversary of the parish!

Fr. Joel B. Pabilona, Jr.
Pastor
