Being a Billboard for Christ

"You are a billboard for Christ." These are the words of popular Catholic speaker Father Mike Schmitz. He's trying to convey that if we are disciples of Christ, everything we do is a representation of Him. This beautiful reality is combined with a heavy responsibility. We must regularly ask ourselves, are we faithfully reflecting the love and goodness of Christ in our lives?

In today's second reading St. Paul says that "whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God." As stewards, every facet of our lives should be done to try to glorify God. This does not mean that we must always be in the chapel or being performing extraordinary works of charity. Rather, it means that we must infuse the ordinary events of our life with the powerful love of Christ. One aspect that we can sanctify is our daily work.

We should strive to realize that our work can be the sacrifice that we offer up to God. In realizing that we are working for God, we ourselves will be sanctified. We will slowly realize that everything we do is for Him, spurring us onto greater virtue. This will ultimately lead us to sanctify others for they will see the glory of God in our simple witness. Therefore, let us strive to intentionally say a prayer every morning asking God to help us glorify Him through our daily tasks.

PLEASE NOTE THAT MASSES WILL NO LONGER BE LIVESTREAMED AS OF MARCH 1ST, 2024

LIVING FAITH REFLECTION EVENING Led by Anna Racine

Date: Tues Feb 27th 630pm-830pm Cost:$35

Faith must not only be practiced but it must be lived. A living faith requires an effort not only to be alive but stay alive. It grows and is active in good times and in bad. Living faith is the kind of faith God wants us to have. Join us as we discuss the importance of how faith affects the way we live every day. The evening includes a presentation and discussion and closes with a prayer service.
