Gospel: Mark 4.35-41 – Jesus Stills a Storm

“In Gospel today we hear the account of Jesus asleep on the boat despite a harrowing storm raging all around. Jesus slept through the wind, waves, rain, and noise, but awoke immediately when the disciples came to Him for help. In the midst of the storms of our lives, when we think we are all alone, we should turn to Jesus for help and He will speedily come to our aid.”

In the spirit of gratitude and celebration, you are invited to honour Fr. Jobby Joseph as he leaves our Parish.

Pope at Audience: The Holy Spirit makes Scripture living and active

Pope Francis reflects on the work of the Holy Spirit in revelation, highlighting His role in inspiring and explaining Sacred Scripture.

The Holy Spirit not only inspires Sacred Scripture, but also “makes them inspiring,” Pope Francis said at Wednesday’s General Audience.

The Pope highlighted the divine inspiration of the Bible in his catechesis at the Audience, as he focused on the role of the Holy Spirit in divine revelation.

However, the work of the Holy Spirit does not end with inspiration, Pope Francis explained. The Holy Spirit is continually at work in the Church to explain the meaning of Scripture and make the sacred writings “perennially living and active.”

He gave the example of being inspired by a passage of Scripture that perhaps we have read many times “without emotion.” “One day we read it in an atmosphere of faith and prayer,” the Pope said, and “the text is unexpectedly illuminated” by the Holy Spirit.

Saint Thomas More: The Age of the Author

Thomas More was one of the greatest humanists of his age but also a man devoted to the spiritual life. His lifetime of learning, charity, and service to the public good of England enabled him to stand a patient and holy witness—and one of the greatest of modern martyrs—against the tyranny of Henry VIII. We celebrate his feast day on June 22.
